

TRUMP

Meaning: To surpass or outdo someone or something, especially in skill or ability.

1. The debate was intense, but she managed to trump her opponents with a brilliant argument.
2. His ability to think on his feet often allowed him to trump the competition in business meetings.
3. As the final whistle blew, the underdog team celebrated their victory, having managed to trump the reigning champions.
4. The artist's latest work seemed to trump all of her previous creations, earning widespread acclaim.
5. In the world of politics, a single strategic move can often trump years of hard work and planning.
6. The unexpected decision to trump the previous agreement surprised everyone at the meeting.
7. She plays the trumpet beautifully, often performing in local jazz clubs.
8. During the game, he managed to trump his opponent's strategy with a clever move.
9. The politician's ability to trump his rivals in debates earned him a loyal following.
10. In the card game, it's crucial to know when to trump your opponents to secure a win.
11. The unexpected election of Donald Trump in 2016 reshaped American politics.
12. Her ability to trump the competition in the final round surprised everyone.
13. The artist's latest work was intended to trump his previous masterpieces.
14. During the game, he managed to trump his opponent's best card with a clever play.
15. Many believed that the controversial policies would ultimately trump any potential benefits.
16. The unexpected victory of Trump in the election shocked many political analysts.
17. Many supporters believe that Trump's policies will rejuvenate the economy.
18. Critics argue that Trump's approach to foreign relations is overly aggressive.
19. In the wake of Trump's presidency, discussions about immigration reform intensified.
20. The media's coverage of Trump often highlights both his controversial statements and his supporters' fervor.
21. The decision to trump all previous regulations sparked a heated debate among lawmakers.

22. In the game of poker, a trump card can turn the tide of the match in an instant.
23. Her extensive experience in marketing allowed her to trump the competition effortlessly.
24. During the election, he promised to trump the current administration's policies with new reforms.
25. The artist aimed to trump conventional styles by introducing a bold and innovative approach.
26. The unexpected turn of events seemed to trump everyone's predictions for the election.
27. In card games, a trump card can change the outcome of a hand dramatically.
28. His ability to trump his competitors in debates showcased his skills as a politician.
29. The artist's vibrant use of color managed to trump all previous works in the gallery.
30. Some believed that his bold decisions would ultimately trump any opposition he faced.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trump>