

TRUNCATION

Meaning: Truncation is the process of shortening or cutting off part of something, often resulting in a loss of information or detail.

1. The truncation of the dataset led to a significant loss of valuable information.
2. In mathematics, truncation often simplifies complex expressions for easier computation.
3. The software allows for the truncation of video clips to highlight key moments.
4. Truncation in the context of the essay meant that important arguments were omitted.
5. She noticed a truncation in the tree's growth due to the harsh winter conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/truncation>