

TRUNDLE

Meaning: Trundle: to move or roll along slowly and steadily, often with a low, rumbling sound.

1. The children watched in delight as the old cart began to trundle down the hill.
2. He decided to trundle his suitcase through the crowded airport instead of searching for a trolley.
3. As the storm approached, the dogs trundled back to their kennels, sensing the change in the weather.
4. The toddler loved to trundle his toy cars along the living room floor, making engine sounds as he played.
5. With a gentle push, the wheelbarrow started to trundle across the uneven garden path.
6. The children watched the wheels trundle down the hill, giggling with delight.
7. She decided to trundle her suitcase through the airport instead of carrying it.
8. As the old cart began to trundle along the cobblestone road, it made a charming noise.
9. They could hear the sound of the train trundling away into the distance.
10. With a gentle push, he let the marbles trundle across the smooth surface of the table.
11. The children watched in delight as the large wheel began to trundle down the hill.
12. She decided to trundle the suitcase through the crowded airport rather than struggle to carry it.
13. As the sun set, the old cart continued to trundle along the dirt path, its wooden wheels creaking softly.
14. He could hear the sound of the train trundle past their house, a familiar rhythm in the quiet night.
15. With a gentle push, the toddler managed to trundle the toy car across the living room floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trundle>