

TRUNKFUL

Meaning: Trunkful: the amount that can fill a trunk, typically referring to a large quantity of items or goods.

1. The farmer loaded a trunkful of fresh apples to take to the market.
2. After the road trip, they returned home with a trunkful of souvenirs from their travels.
3. She was excited to discover a trunkful of old family photos in the attic.
4. In the back of the truck, they packed a trunkful of camping gear for the weekend getaway.
5. The garage sale yielded a trunkful of hidden treasures that they decided to keep.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trunkful>