

TRUNNEL

Meaning: A trunnel is a wooden peg or dowel used to fasten or secure wooden beams or components together in construction.

1. The carpenter used a trunnel to securely fasten the wooden beams together.
2. During the restoration of the old barn, they discovered several ancient trunnels still holding the structure.
3. The trunnel, made from sturdy oak, was essential for maintaining the integrity of the ship's frame.
4. As he explained the construction process, he emphasized the importance of each trunnel in the overall design.
5. In traditional boat building, trunnels are often preferred over metal fasteners for their durability and aesthetic appeal.
6. The carpenter used a trunnel to ensure the wooden beams were securely fastened together.
7. In traditional boat building, trunnels are favored for their ability to expand and contract with the wood.
8. The ancient shipwrights relied on trunnels made of oak to hold their vessels together through harsh seas.
9. While modern construction often favors metal fasteners, some craftsmen still appreciate the strength of trunnels.
10. The trunnel's unique design allows for a greater grip in the wood, providing durability over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trunnel>