

TRYST

Meaning: A tryst is a secret meeting or rendezvous, especially between lovers.

1. They met at their secret tryst, hidden away from the prying eyes of the world.
2. After weeks of anticipation, the lovers finally rendezvoused at their favorite tryst under the stars.
3. The old oak tree had seen many a tryst, bearing witness to the whispered promises of young love.
4. Despite the risks, they cherished each stolen moment at their clandestine tryst by the riverbank.
5. Their hearts raced as they arrived at the tryst, knowing it was their only chance to be together.
6. Under the cover of darkness, they arranged a secret tryst at the old oak tree.
7. The lovers met for a clandestine tryst, knowing the world would never understand their bond.
8. Each month, they eagerly anticipated their tryst, a brief escape from their mundane lives.
9. Whispers of their forbidden tryst spread through the town, fueling both intrigue and gossip.
10. Their final tryst was filled with bittersweet farewells, as they prepared to part ways.
11. They secretly arranged a tryst at the old oak tree in the park.
12. Their romantic tryst was filled with laughter and whispered secrets under the stars.
13. Despite the rain, their tryst at the secluded beach was unforgettable.
14. The lovers exchanged letters to coordinate their trysts without anyone knowing.
15. Every Sunday afternoon, they cherished their trysts at the quaint little café downtown.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tryst>