TUBE-NOSED

Meaning: Tube-nosed refers to a characteristic of certain birds and bats that have elongated, tubular nostrils, often adapted for specific ecological niches such as foraging over water or in dense habitats.

1. The tube-nosed bird glided gracefully over the ocean waves in search of fish.
2. Scientists have discovered a new species of tube-nosed bat in the tropical rainforest.
3. The bright plumage of the tube-nosed parrot caught the eye of every birdwatcher in the park.
4. During the expedition, the researchers documented the feeding habits of tube-nosed seabirds.
5. The tube-nosed snakes are known for their unique respiratory adaptation to their underground habitat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tube-nosed