

TUBERCULAR

Meaning: 'Tubercular' refers to relating to or affected by tuberculosis, a bacterial infection that primarily affects the lungs.

1. The doctor suspected that the patient's persistent cough was due to a tubercular infection.
2. In some regions, public health initiatives focus on reducing the spread of tubercular diseases.
3. Historical records indicate that tubercular outbreaks significantly impacted urban populations in the 19th century.
4. She dedicated her research to understanding the genetic factors that contribute to tubercular susceptibility.
5. After months of treatment, the patient finally received confirmation that her tubercular condition had improved significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tubercular>