

TUBICOLOUS

Meaning: Tubicolous refers to organisms or growths that are characterized by forming or inhabiting tubular structures.

1. The term 'tubicolous' is often used to describe a specific type of growth that forms in a tubular shape.
2. In biology, researchers have identified a tubicolous organism that thrives in underwater habitats.
3. The artist's latest sculpture featured a tubicolous design that mimicked the intricate forms found in nature.
4. During the presentation, the scientist explained the characteristics of tubicolous species in deep-sea ecosystems.
5. Her fascination with tubicolous structures led her to pursue a career in marine biology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tubicolous>