

TUFT

Meaning: A tuft is a small cluster or bunch of something, typically hair, grass, or flowers, that is gathered together at one point.

1. The gardener admired the vibrant tuft of flowers swaying gently in the breeze.
2. A tuft of grass poked through the cracks in the old pavement, defying the odds of urban life.
3. Her hair was styled in a playful tuft on top of her head, adding a touch of whimsy to her look.
4. The rabbit nibbled on a tuft of clover in the meadow, completely at ease in its natural habitat.
5. He found a tuft of feathers beneath the tree, evidence of the bird that had once nested there.
6. The gardener carefully trimmed the tuft of grass along the pathway.
7. Her hair was styled into a messy tuft that gave her a playful appearance.
8. A tuft of wildflowers emerged from the rocky crevice, adding color to the landscape.
9. He noticed a tuft of feathers on the ground, likely shed by a passing bird.
10. The dog proudly carried a tuft of fur in its mouth, having found it during their walk.
11. The gardener admired the vibrant tuft of grass that had sprouted in the corner of the garden.
12. A tuft of feathers floated gently down from the bird's nest in the tree above.
13. She styled her hair into a messy tuft, giving her a playful look for the party.
14. The artist painted a delicate tuft of wildflowers in the foreground of his landscape.
15. He noticed a tuft of moss growing on the old stone wall, adding to its rustic charm.