

TULIP-EARED

Meaning: Tulip-eared refers to an animal, particularly a cat or rabbit, characterized by large, rounded ears that resemble the shape of a tulip flower, often contributing to its distinctive and appealing appearance.

1. The tulip-eared cat was known for its unique and striking appearance.
2. In the garden, the tulip-eared rabbit caught everyone's attention with its adorable features.
3. She considered the tulip-eared variety of the breed to be the most charming of all.
4. His tulip-eared dog often drew compliments from neighbors during their evening walks.
5. The artist painted a whimsical portrait of a tulip-eared creature frolicking in a meadow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tulip-eared>