

TULIP-SHELL

Meaning: Tulip-shell: a type of seashell characterized by its delicate, intricate patterns and often found along shorelines.

1. The delicate tulip-shell, with its intricate patterns, sparkled in the sunlight.
2. Collecting tulip-shells along the shore became a cherished pastime for the children.
3. As she walked along the beach, she marveled at the variety of colors in the tulip-shells scattered on the sand.
4. The artist used a tulip-shell as inspiration for her latest sculpture, capturing its elegance in clay.
5. In the aquarium, the tulip-shell was admired for its unique shape and vibrant hues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tulip-shell>