

TUMP

Meaning: TUMP (noun): A small hill or mound, often used to describe a natural elevation or a pile of material such as sand.

1. The hikers decided to take a break at the top of the tump, enjoying the view of the valley below.
2. During the festival, children built a small tump of sand to create their own miniature beach.
3. The ancient burial site was marked by a prominent tump, a remnant of a long-lost civilization.
4. As the fog rolled in, the tump seemed to disappear into the mist, adding an air of mystery to the landscape.
5. Locals often gather on the tump to celebrate the changing seasons with music and storytelling.
6. The hiker stumbled over a small tump covered in moss.
7. After a heavy rain, the tump in the field became a perfect spot for puddles to form.
8. The children built a fort on the tump, using branches and leaves for cover.
9. During our hike, we paused to admire the view from the top of the tump.
10. He pointed out the ancient burial mound, which was just a tump in the landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tump>