

TUMPLINE

Meaning: A tumpline is a strap or cord used to secure a load, typically worn across the forehead or shoulders, to help distribute weight and ease carrying.

1. The hiker secured his heavy backpack with a tumpline to ease the strain on his shoulders.
2. During the expedition, they taught the volunteers how to use a tumpline for carrying supplies efficiently.
3. She adjusted the tumpline across her forehead, feeling the weight of the load shift in a more comfortable way.
4. The traditional tumpline, made from woven fibers, has been used by indigenous peoples for centuries.
5. As he prepared for the long journey, he appreciated the practicality of a tumpline over a standard harness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tumpline>