

TUMULTUARILY

Meaning: In a chaotic, disorderly, or noisy manner, often involving a large group of people.

1. The crowd surged tumultuarily as the concert reached its peak.
2. The debate escalated tumultuarily, with voices raised and tempers flaring.
3. Students entered the auditorium tumultuarily, eager to find their seats before the show started.
4. She left the room tumultuarily, unable to contain her frustration any longer.
5. The storm raged tumultuarily, shaking the windows and rattling the doors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tumultuarily>