

TUNK

Meaning: 'Tunk' refers to a sharp, resonant sound produced by a heavy object striking a surface.

1. The kid gave a loud tunk when he dropped his toy on the floor.
2. As the baseball hit the bat, it made a satisfying tunk sound that echoed in the park.
3. She felt a tunk in her chest as she realized she had forgotten her keys again.
4. With a tunk, the lid of the box fell shut, sealing its contents away.
5. The old wooden floorboards creaked and tunked under their weight as they walked through the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tunk>