

TURBAN-SHELL

Meaning: Turban-shell: a type of marine gastropod mollusk characterized by its spirally coiled, patterned shell, often found in coral reefs.

1. The turban-shell, with its intricately patterned exterior, is a fascinating subject for marine biologists.
2. During our dive, we spotted a vibrant turban-shell nestled among the corals, showcasing its colorful design.
3. In many coastal cultures, the turban-shell is often used in jewelry and decorative pieces.
4. The unique shape of the turban-shell makes it easily recognizable among other mollusks.
5. Collectors treasure the turban-shell not only for its beauty but also for its rarity in certain regions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turban-shell>