TURBINOID

Meaning: Turbinoid refers to a type of marine gastropod shell characterized by a spiral shape and often found in fossil records.

1. The paleontologist discovered a new species of turbinoid in the fossil record.
2. Turbinoid shells are often found in marine environments and exhibit unique spiral patterns.
3. Researchers are studying the ecological impact of turbinoid mollusks on coral reef ecosystems.
4. The exhibit featured a stunning collection of turbinoid specimens from various ocean depths.
5. In her thesis, she argued that the evolution of turbinoid forms reflects changes in ocean temperature over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turbinoid