

TURBULENCE

Meaning: Turbulence refers to a state of disorder or disturbance, characterized by irregular or violent movements, whether in the atmosphere, as experienced during flight, or in one's emotions.

1. The plane encountered unexpected turbulence as it flew over the mountains.
2. Her emotions were in a state of turbulence after hearing the shocking news.
3. The stock market experienced significant turbulence following the announcement of new policies.
4. During the debate, the atmosphere became charged with turbulence as the candidates clashed.
5. The river's turbulence made it dangerous for inexperienced kayakers to navigate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turbulence>