

TURBULENCY

Meaning: Turbulency refers to a state of disturbance or agitation, often characterized by unpredictability or chaos, whether in physical conditions like air movement or in social situations like discussions.

1. The airplane experienced significant turbulence as it flew through the storm.
2. During the meeting, the discussion revealed a sense of turbulence among the team regarding the project's direction.
3. The ocean's turbulence made it difficult for the fishermen to navigate their boats safely.
4. He remained calm in the face of turbulence, knowing that challenges often lead to growth.
5. The financial market showed signs of turbulence, causing investors to reconsider their strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turbulence>