

TURBULENT

Meaning: Turbulent refers to a state of disturbance or disorder characterized by chaotic movement or intense emotional upheaval.

1. The turbulent waters of the river made navigation extremely challenging for the small boat.
2. Her turbulent emotions left her feeling both exhilarated and exhausted after the event.
3. The turbulent political climate in the region has led to widespread protests and unrest.
4. During the flight, the captain warned passengers about the turbulent air currents expected over the mountains.
5. Their turbulent relationship was marked by frequent arguments and passionate reconciliations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turbulent>