

TURN-SICK

Meaning: Turn-sick: to begin feeling nauseous or unwell, often as a result of motion or food.

1. When the roller coaster took that sudden drop, I thought I might turn sick.
2. After eating that questionable street food, I could feel my stomach start to turn sick.
3. The constant motion of the boat made some passengers turn sick within minutes.
4. He tried to keep his composure, but the smell of the fish market made him turn sick.
5. While on the long bus ride, she felt her head spin and knew she would turn sick.
6. After eating the undercooked chicken, I began to turn sick.
7. The sudden smell of spoiled food made me feel like I might turn sick.
8. He didn't expect the roller coaster ride to make him turn sick so quickly.
9. When I saw the gruesome scene, I could feel myself starting to turn sick.
10. The medication made her stomach churn, and she feared she would turn sick.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turn-sick>