

TURNOVER

Meaning: Turnover refers to the total revenue generated by a business during a specific period, or the rate at which employees leave and are replaced within an organization.

1. The company's turnover has significantly increased over the past year.
2. High employee turnover can lead to disruptions in workflow and team dynamics.
3. Investors often look at turnover rates to assess the health of a business.
4. The restaurant's monthly turnover exceeded expectations, prompting plans for expansion.
5. In sports, a turnover can drastically change the momentum of a game.
6. The company's turnover increased significantly after the new marketing strategy was implemented.
7. High employee turnover can disrupt team dynamics and affect overall productivity.
8. In the restaurant industry, turnover rates can be particularly high due to the demanding nature of the work.
9. Investors often look at a business's turnover as a key indicator of its financial health.
10. The turnover of inventory in the store was impressive, leading to a boost in profits for the quarter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turnover>