

TURPIN

Meaning: Turpin refers to Dick Turpin, a famous 18th-century English highwayman known for his criminal exploits and legendary status in folklore.

1. Turpin was known as a notorious highwayman during the 18th century.
2. The local legend of Turpin has inspired countless stories and films over the years.
3. After reading about Turpin's exploits, I couldn't help but be fascinated by his adventurous life.
4. In the historical novel, Turpin is portrayed as both a villain and a hero, reflecting the complexities of his character.
5. Despite his criminal activities, Turpin remains a figure of intrigue in British folklore.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turpin>