

TURTILING

Meaning: Turtling refers to a defensive behavior or strategy, where an individual or character withdraws into a protective state or focuses on defense rather than offense.

1. Turtling in video games often refers to a defensive strategy where players focus on building up their defenses rather than attacking.
2. The young turtle was turtling in its shell, waiting for danger to pass before venturing out.
3. During the competition, the team's turtling approach allowed them to maintain a strong position until the final round.
4. As she observed the baby turtles turtling into the sand, she felt a sense of awe at the instinctual journey they were about to begin.
5. In the debate, he accused his opponent of turtling to avoid answering difficult questions directly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/turtling>