

TUSKER

Meaning: Tusker: a male elephant, especially one with large tusks.

1. The tusker ambled through the dense jungle, its massive form silhouetted against the setting sun.
2. In the heart of the national park, we spotted a majestic tusker grazing peacefully by the riverbank.
3. Conservationists are working tirelessly to protect the tusker population from poaching and habitat loss.
4. The tusker's impressive ivory tusks are a symbol of strength and beauty in the animal kingdom.
5. During our wildlife safari, we were fortunate enough to witness a tusker leading its herd through the grasslands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tusker>