

TUT-NOSE

Meaning: 'Tut-nose' refers to the act of expressing disapproval or annoyance through a sound or facial expression, often accompanied by a "tut" sound made by clicking the tongue.

1. The child made a tut-nose when he saw the mess he had created.
2. She couldn't help but tut-nose disapprovingly at his lack of manners.
3. With a quick tut-nose, the teacher signaled her disappointment in the student's work.
4. He always had a tut-nose ready for anything he deemed unacceptable.
5. The audience exchanged tut-noses during the awkward silence that followed the joke.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tut-nose>