

TUT-WORK

Meaning: Tut-work refers to academic assignments or projects that require significant effort and time, often associated with tutoring or educational support.

1. Tut-work can often feel overwhelming when deadlines are approaching.
2. The students found the tut-work to be both challenging and rewarding.
3. After hours of tut-work, they finally grasped the complex concept.
4. She dedicated her weekends to completing her tut-work efficiently.
5. His tutors provided valuable feedback on the tut-work he submitted.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tut-work>