

TWADDLING

Meaning: Twaddling refers to talking or writing in a silly, nonsensical, or trivial manner that distracts from more serious or important matters.

1. His twaddling during the meeting frustrated everyone who was trying to focus on the important issues.
2. The professor dismissed the student's twaddling as a distraction from the main topic of discussion.
3. I couldn't help but roll my eyes at her twaddling about trivial matters instead of addressing the real problems at hand.
4. After hours of twaddling, they finally got to the point of their presentation, much to the audience's relief.
5. The twaddling in his speech made it difficult for the listeners to take him seriously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/twaddling>