

TWANG

Meaning: Twang refers to a sharp, vibrating sound, often associated with the resonance of a musical instrument or a distinctive nasal accent in speech.

1. The twang of the guitar echoed through the dimly lit room.
2. She spoke with a distinct twang that revealed her Southern roots.
3. As he released the bow, a sharp twang filled the air, signaling the start of the performance.
4. The old fence creaked with a twang as the wind blew against it.
5. Her laughter had a twang of mischief that made everyone around her smile.
6. The guitar had a delightful twang that resonated throughout the room.
7. As she spoke, a distinct twang in her accent revealed her Southern roots.
8. His voice had a unique twang, making his storytelling all the more captivating.
9. The rubber band gave off a sharp twang when it snapped back into place.
10. She loved the twang of the banjo, which added a lively rhythm to the bluegrass music.
11. The guitar string gave a satisfying twang when plucked.
12. She spoke with a slight twang that revealed her Southern roots.
13. As the arrow flew, it made a sharp twang as it sliced through the air.
14. His voice had a twang that made it instantly recognizable on the radio.
15. The old fence creaked and produced a twang as the wind blew against it.
16. The guitar produced a rich twang that resonated throughout the room.
17. As he spoke, there was a slight twang in his accent that revealed his Southern roots.
18. The old wooden bowstring gave a satisfying twang when it was released.
19. She loved the twang of country music, which reminded her of home.
20. With a quick flick of his wrist, he sent the paper airplane soaring with a gentle twang.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/twang>