

TWINNER

Meaning: 'Twiner' refers to a person who wins a competition or contest, particularly in events like races or contests.

1. The twinner of the last marathon was celebrated for breaking the previous record.
2. In a surprising twist, the twinner of the contest revealed that they had trained in secret.
3. At the talent show, the twinner showcased their incredible skills, leaving the audience in awe.
4. After much anticipation, the twinner of the prestigious award was announced during the ceremony.
5. The artist's twinner piece gained immediate acclaim for its innovative approach and vivid colors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/twiner>