

TWIST

Meaning: Twist: a sudden change in direction or outcome, or the act of bending or contorting something into a different shape.

1. The plot took an unexpected twist that left the audience in shock.
2. She can twist her body into incredible shapes during her dance routine.
3. After several attempts, he managed to twist the stubborn lid off the jar.
4. Their friendship took a twist when they found themselves on opposing sides of the debate.
5. He decided to twist the truth a little to make the story more interesting.
6. He decided to twist the cap off the bottle with a quick motion.
7. The plot of the novel took an unexpected twist that left readers stunned.
8. As she danced, the fabric of her dress began to twist and twirl around her.
9. He managed to twist the truth to make himself look innocent in the situation.
10. With a gentle twist of the knob, the lights dimmed to a cozy glow.
11. She decided to twist the fabric into a beautiful spiral pattern.
12. The plot of the movie took a surprising twist that left the audience in shock.
13. He had to twist the knob several times before the door finally opened.
14. As she spoke, a twist of irony colored her words, making everyone laugh.
15. The athlete executed a perfect twist in mid-air, earning applause from the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/twist>