

TWIT

Meaning: Twit (noun): a foolish or silly person.

1. He called me a twit for forgetting his birthday.
2. Despite his intelligence, he often acts like a complete twit in social situations.
3. I can't believe she would stoop so low as to call him a twit in front of everyone.
4. It's frustrating to deal with twits who don't take anything seriously.
5. After his latest blunder, everyone at the office started calling him the office twit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/twit>