

TWO-LIPPED

Meaning: Two-lipped refers to having two distinct lips or edges, often describing a flower's structure or a facial expression that suggests playfulness or intrigue.

1. The two-lipped structure of the flower attracted many pollinators.
2. Her two-lipped smile hinted at mischief as she shared the secret.
3. The artist captured the essence of the two-lipped vase in exquisite detail.
4. During the presentation, he referred to the two-lipped nature of the theory.
5. The two-lipped design of the lid ensures that it seals tightly against moisture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/two-lipped>