

TYMPANITIC

Meaning: Tympanitic refers to a hollow, drum-like sound produced by the presence of gas in the abdomen, often indicating distension or obstruction.

1. The patient's abdomen felt tympanitic, indicating a potential buildup of gas.
2. During the physical examination, the doctor noted that the tympanitic sound could suggest an obstruction.
3. After the meal, he experienced tympanitic discomfort that made it hard to concentrate.
4. The tympanitic nature of her stomach prompted further investigation into her digestive health.
5. In cases of severe bloating, the abdomen often presents as tympanitic on palpation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tympanitic>