

TYPAL

Meaning: TYPAL: characteristic of or typical of a particular type or category.

1. The architect designed the building with a typal structure that reflected the local culture.
2. Her writing style was typal for the genre, capturing the essence of contemporary poetry.
3. The scientist noted that the findings were typal of the species, providing insight into their behavior.
4. During the conference, he presented a typal case study that illustrated the common challenges faced by startups.
5. In her analysis, she highlighted the typal features of the artwork that defined the movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/typal>