

TYPHOMALARIAL

Meaning: Typhomalaria refers to a type of infection that occurs when the malaria parasite causes symptoms similar to those of typhoid fever.

1. Typhomalaria is a term that describes a specific form of infection caused by the malaria parasite.
2. The patient's symptoms suggested a potential typhomalarial infection, prompting further testing.
3. In regions where malaria is endemic, typhomalaria can pose significant health risks to vulnerable populations.
4. Doctors were concerned about the typhomalarial complications that could arise from untreated malaria.
5. Research into typhomalarial diseases is crucial for developing effective treatments and preventive measures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/typhomalarial>