

TYPHOUS

*Meaning: Typhous refers to a type of infectious disease caused by the bacterium Rickettsia prowazekii, commonly associated with epidemic typhus fever.*

1. Typhous fever was a significant health concern during the early 20th century.
2. The typhous outbreak in the region prompted immediate public health measures.
3. Many soldiers suffered from typhous infections during World War I due to unsanitary conditions.
4. Symptoms of typhous can include fever, headache, and gastrointestinal distress.
5. Advancements in sanitation have significantly reduced the incidence of typhous illnesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/typhous>