

TYPIFICATION

Meaning: TYPIFICATION is the act of representing or exemplifying a particular characteristic or quality, often resulting in a simplified or generalized portrayal.

1. TYPIFICATION can often lead to oversimplification of complex ideas.
2. The artist's work was a perfect typification of the cultural movement of her time.
3. In sociology, typification helps researchers categorize behaviors and social phenomena.
4. His typification of the character made it easier for the audience to understand his motivations.
5. The study provided a clear typification of different leadership styles within organizations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/typification>