

UGLIFY

Meaning: UGLIFY (verb): to make something less attractive or pleasant in appearance or quality.

1. The constant noise from the construction site began to uglify the once peaceful neighborhood.
2. Her harsh comments seemed designed to uglify the otherwise beautiful evening.
3. Over time, pollution can uglify even the most breathtaking landscapes.
4. The dilapidated buildings did little to hide the fact that the area had been uglified by neglect.
5. He worried that the new regulations would uglify the city's historic architecture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uglify>