

ULCERATION

Meaning: Ulceration is the formation of an ulcer, characterized by the development of a sore or lesion on the skin or mucous membranes, often resulting from a chronic condition or infection.

1. The doctor explained that the patient's chronic condition had led to severe ulceration of the skin.
2. After months of neglect, the ulceration on his foot became infected and required immediate attention.
3. Dietary changes were recommended to help reduce the risk of ulceration in the gastrointestinal tract.
4. The study focused on the relationship between stress and ulceration in the digestive system.
5. She was prescribed medication to promote healing and prevent further ulceration in the affected area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ulceration>