

ULTRAMARINE

Meaning: Ultramarine is a vivid blue pigment originally made from lapis lazuli, valued by artists for its rich color and depth.

1. The artist chose ultramarine for the sky in her painting to evoke a sense of depth and tranquility.
2. Ultramarine, derived from the lapis lazuli stone, has been prized by painters for centuries for its vibrant hue.
3. The walls of the cathedral were adorned with ultramarine frescoes that glowed under the soft candlelight.
4. In fashion, ultramarine is often used to create striking and bold looks that catch the eye.
5. She mixed ultramarine with white to achieve a beautiful shade of blue for her ceramic pieces.
6. He admired the richness of the ultramarine fabric, which added a bold contrast to the rest of the décor.
7. The ancient Greeks prized ultramarine, extracting the pigment from lapis lazuli to create stunning artworks.
8. In her latest collection, the designer incorporated shades of ultramarine, giving the garments a vibrant and luxurious feel.
9. The ocean sparkled with an ultramarine hue, blending seamlessly with the clear blue sky above.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ultramarine>