

UNAPPLIABLE

Meaning: Unapliable: not capable of being applied or relevant in a particular context or situation.

1. The legal principles outlined in the contract were deemed unapliable in this unique case.
2. In her argument, she emphasized that the previous rulings were unapliable to the current situation.
3. Due to the specific circumstances, the standard procedures became unapliable and required revision.
4. The teacher explained that certain rules were unapliable to students with special needs.
5. His reasoning was so flawed that it rendered his conclusions unapliable in any practical context.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unapliable>