

UNBEAR

Meaning: Unbearable: too painful, intense, or unpleasant to be endured.

1. The pain from the injury was so intense that it became almost unbearable.
2. Her constant criticism made it difficult for him to stay in the relationship any longer; it was simply unbearable.
3. As the heat rose during the summer, the humidity became unbearably thick.
4. The thought of losing her best friend was unbearable and kept her awake at night.
5. They faced an unbearable amount of pressure to perform well in the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unbear>