

UNBLIND

Meaning: Unblind: to reveal or eliminate biases or hidden information, particularly in research or decision-making processes.

1. The community worked together to unblind the biases that had long influenced their decisions.
2. After months of research, the scientists were finally able to unblind the results of the clinical trial.
3. To unblind the participants, the researchers revealed the treatment they had received during the study.
4. His heartfelt speech aimed to unblind the audience to the struggles faced by marginalized groups.
5. The documentary sought to unblind viewers to the realities of climate change affecting vulnerable regions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unblind>