

UNBLINDFOLD

Meaning: To remove a blindfold from someone, allowing them to see.

1. She decided to unblindfold him, revealing the surprise party they had planned.
2. As the magician waved his hand, he commanded the assistant to unblindfold herself dramatically.
3. After hours of uncertainty, the team agreed it was time to unblindfold their approach to the project.
4. In the movie's climax, the protagonist must unblindfold to face the truth about her past.
5. To make the game more exciting, the host would unblindfold the contestants one by one.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unblindfold>