

UNBONE

Meaning: Unbone (verb): To remove the bones from meat or fish in preparation for cooking.

1. The chef skillfully unboned the fish to prepare it for the delicate recipe.
2. After hours of painstaking work, she finally managed to unbone the chicken for the gourmet dish.
3. He learned how to unbone a rabbit in culinary school, a skill that impressed his classmates.
4. The process of unboning the meat was tedious, but it made the meal more enjoyable.
5. In traditional butchery, knowing how to unbone various cuts of meat is essential for quality preparation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unbone>