

UNBUCKLE

Meaning: To unbuckle means to release or detach a buckle, typically from a seatbelt or similar fastening.

1. After a long day of driving, she finally decided to unbuckle her seatbelt and stretch her legs.
2. He struggled to unbuckle the child's car seat in the back of the taxi.
3. Before exiting the roller coaster, the attendant reminded everyone to unbuckle their harnesses.
4. She reached down to unbuckle her sandals, eager to feel the cool grass beneath her feet.
5. As soon as the plane landed, passengers hurried to unbuckle their seatbelts and gather their belongings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unbuckle>