

UNBURROW

Meaning: To unburrow means to free oneself from being buried or trapped under a layer of material, such as soil or snow.

1. The rabbit struggled to unburrow itself from the thick layer of snow.
2. After hours of digging, the dog finally managed to unburrow the hidden toy.
3. In spring, the old roots begin to unburrow, revealing new life beneath the surface.
4. Children often delight in watching the hedgehog unburrow from its cozy nest.
5. The archaeologist was eager to unburrow the ancient artifacts buried deep in the sand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unburrow>