

UNCAPABLE

Meaning: Uncapable: lacking the ability or capacity to perform a task or understand a concept.

1. The uncapable attitude of the team led to a series of missed deadlines.
2. Despite her efforts, she felt uncapable of understanding the complex math problems.
3. His uncapable demeanor in the face of criticism made it difficult for others to collaborate with him.
4. The project was deemed uncapable of meeting the necessary standards for approval.
5. Feeling uncapable often stems from a lack of confidence rather than actual ability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncapable>